Irish Language
Residential Weekend
at Cultra

AnDroichead

An Droichead is organising a unique traditional Irish language and cultural experience at the Ulster Folk Museum. The joint cultural initiative, which will be a two-day Irish language residential weekend in the Museum at Cúl Trá. Participants will get an opportunity to attend Irish language classes, to enjoy traditional Irish music and dance inside some of the historic dwellings within the museum, and to attend an evening céilí hosted by An Droichead.

To make the weekend a full 'Gaeltacht on your doorstep' experience, attendees can stay overnight on the Saturday and all meals will be provided on site. There are limited spaces available so early booking is advisable to avoid disappointment. The full weekend experience and immersion in Irish language and culture, will cost just £60 per person.
